Amanda Kerr-Fuffle, great granddaughter of Shonagh Kenderdine, thumbs through the abridged edition of the Summary of the Corruption, Fraud and Errors in the Turitea Wind Farm Final Decision.

Amanda remarked that even though she read to page 4,006 she “still really could not see what the kerfuffle was all about.”

“So granny couldn’t stop being a judge? That’s no big deal” she said, “when she’s stood down from the Historic Places Trust in July she plans to just keep on doing the job - as long as she still gets paid”
